Opening the Gift

Each of us by our Baptism has been blessed by the Holy Spirit with gifts needed to live our lives for God in the world. We invite you to join other young adults from Redemptorist parishes all over North America in discovering how we can better use the gifts we have been given.

What is Dialogue?

Dialogue is an event that gathers young adults and Redemptorists from across a region of the world. We belong to the North American region, thus a North American Dialogue! This event is a time to discuss the needs of the Church and the role that young adults play in guiding the church towards the Redemptorist Charism, “to serve the poor and most abandoned.”

Who is it for?

Dialogue is for young adults, age 18-35 and Redemptorists who seek to grow with one another in their faith journeys.

What can I expect?

Celebration of the Eucharist daily prayer with the experience of other Cultures a strong sense of community opportunities to share your faith to meet Redemptorists from around the world excitement and fun

How much does it Cost?

The Event itself is $275.00 USD. Payment is to be made through local contact.

Mail or give this to your Regional Dialogue Representative or the person who gave you this Flyer.
